DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Moran et al. (US 5,404,439).

As to independent claims 1 and 16, a method for operating a digitizer comprising the steps of: receiving user input (col. 3, lines 21-40); classifying the user input by using at least one of a time threshold (col. 17, lines 25-35) and a movement threshold; and, performing an action based on the user input (col. 5, lines 1-38).

As to independent claims 2, 9, 17, and 24, a method of classifying a user's input to a computer comprising the steps of: receiving a user's input (col. 3, lines 21-40); classifying the user's input as one of a stroke; a tap, a hold, or a hold and drag based on at least one of the input satisfying a first move threshold, a time threshold, and a second move threshold (col. 17, lines 25-35, col. 5, lines 5-13, col. 7, lines 37-61).

As to independent claim 10, a method of implementing a stroke input to a computer comprising the steps of: determining whether said stroke input started on a draggable object; determining whether said stroke input satisfies a drag threshold; in response to said first determining step and said second determining step, dragging said draggable object (col. 5, lines 22-38, col. 9, lines 5-65).

As to independent claim 11, a method of implementing a stroke input to a computer comprising the steps of: determining that said stroke input did not start on a draggable object; determining that location of said stroke input is inkable; and, adding ink to said location (col. 5, lines 22-38, col. 9, lines 5-65). .

As to independent claim 13, a method of implementing a tap input to a computer comprising the steps of: determining at least one of whether a location of said tap includes wet ink, whether said location is in an inline space, whether said location includes a selectable object, and whether said object was previously selected (col. 4, lines 15-60); and performing at least one of- adding a dot of ink, selecting said selectable object, placing an insertion point in said inline space, or performing an action associated with said object (col. 5, lines 21-38).

As to independent claim 25, a system for acting on user input to a computer comprising: a stylus (col. 3, lines 24-27) a digitizer including a display (col. 3, lines 14-18), a processor (col. 3, lines 58-65); wherein said digitizer receives a user input via contact between said stylus and said digitizer and wherein said processor classifies the user input by using at least one of a time threshold and a movement threshold and wherein said processor performs an action based on the user input (col. 5, lines 5-13, col. 7, lines 37-61, col. 17, lines 25-35).

As to dependent claims 3 and 18, limitations of claims 2 and 16, and further comprising, wherein said classifying step is based on at least two of the input satisfying said first move threshold, said time threshold, and said second move threshold (col. 17, lines 25-35, col. 5, lines 5-38).

As to dependent claims 4 and 18, limitations of claims 2 and 16, and further comprising, wherein said classifying step is based on the input satisfying said first move threshold, said time threshold, and said second move threshold (col. 17, lines 25-35, col. 5, lines 5-38).

As to dependent claims 5 and 20, limitations of claims 2 and 16, and further comprising, wherein, if said input satisfies said first move threshold, the input is classified as a stroke (col. 9, line 60-63, col. 11, line 20-col. 12, line 52).

As to dependent claims 6 and 21, limitations of claims 2 and 16, and further comprising, wherein, if said input does not satisfy said first move threshold and said input does not satisfy said time threshold, the input is classified as a tap (col. 3, lines 20-40, col. 6, lines 37-62, col. 9, lines 5-65).

As to dependent claims 7 and 22, limitations of claims 2 and 16, and further comprising, wherein, said input does not satisfy said time threshold and said input does not satisfy said second move threshold, said input is classified as a hold (col. 3, lines 20-40, col. 6, lines 37-62, col. 9, lines 5-65).

As to dependent claims 8 and 23, limitations of claims 2 and 16, and further comprising, wherein, if said input does not satisfy said time threshold and said input satisfies said second move threshold, said input is classified as a hold and drag (col. 3, lines 20-40, col. 6, lines 37-62, col. 9, lines 5-65).

As to dependent claim 12, limitations of claim 11, and further comprising, wherein said adding ink step includes at least one of drawing, writing, or annotation (col. 3, lines 21-40).

As to dependent claim 14, limitations of claim 7, further comprising the step of: simulating a right mouse click (col. 3, lines 24-27).

As to independent claim 15, see limitations of claim 10.

As to dependent claim 27, limitations of claim 25, and further comprising, wherein said action outputs information to said display (col. 3, lines 14-18).
